50-30-20 MoneyPlan – National Personal Finance Education

Just follow these easy steps:

Step 1: Please go to http://www.50-30-20.com.

Step 2: Click on the large green "Start Today" button.

Step 3: You will be taken to a page where you register and create a user name and password. You will need to provide your bankruptcy case number. Be sure to enter your attorney's name and email address in the appropriate section so that we can email a copy of your certificate to him / her. The course costs $14.95 per person, and you may pay with a debit or credit card, PayPal, or by money order.

If using a money order, please have it in hand when registering. You will need to mail the money order to National Personal Finance Education, but you will be given immediate access to the course. The address to which you need to mail your money order will be provided on the money order payment page.

Step 4: After registration and payment is finished, you will be taken to the first page of the course. The easy to complete and informative course takes approximately two hours, but you may take as much time as you'd like, and you may leave and come back to the course whenever you'd like. The system will remember where you left off.

The course is reading-based – you do not need to enter any financial information or fill in any the forms.

Review questions are provided throughout the course. You cannot fail these questions. If you get a question wrong, an explanation for the correct answer will be provided and you will move on to the next section.

Step 5: Once you complete the course, within 3 hours your Certificate of Debtor Education will be issued and uploaded to your account on the course website. To retrieve your certificate, please to go to the course website and log in, and you will see a "View My Certificate" link. Just click this to view and print the certificate your attorney requires.

Step 6: If you provided your attorney's email address, we will send a copy of your certificate to him / her. However, this is a courtesy service and you will need to make sure that the certificate has arrived.
